

MIDLAND HISTORY FORUM CONFERENCE

SATURDAY 15th OCTOBER 2016

CONFERENCE FEE: £10

MEETING THE CHALLENGES OF THE 5-19 HISTORY CURRICULUM

School of Education, University of Birmingham, Edgbaston, Birmingham, B15 2TT

How do you maximise the potential opportunities of the History Curriculum across the complete age range in Primary and Secondary schools? How do you make the most out of the challenges we find? Our next Forum deals with many of the major issues which you face as well as providing you with a range of opportunities to enrich your work.

We are delighted that our Forum is led by two national speakers who can meet this challenge. Mike Maddison, former HMI for History will provide a clear insight into the relationship between History and British values. Alf Wilkinson, a leading member of the Historical Association, will focus on the fundamental issue of Big Picture History. Today's Forum also provides a range of exciting workshops as well as our usual publisher/educational provider exhibition. We would also like to acknowledge support provided by the History Teacher Educator Network.

Programme

9.30am Registration and Publisher/Provider Exhibition
